'The Rarity of Gratitude'

Submitted by: Sis. Miriam Trotman

"And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God" Luke 17: 15

When Jesus was on his way to Jerusalem, He journeyed through the border between Galilee and Samaria; where he encountered ten lepers, one of whom was a Samaritan. The lepers came to Jesus longing to be healed. Without any question as to who was Jew or Samaritan, He healed them and sent them on their way. Ten Lepers were healed. Only one glorified God "And fell down on his face at his feet, giving thanks: and he was a Samaritan" Luke 17:16

What are some of the lessons we can learn from this passage?

For many years, we are dependent on parents or guardians for everything. Yet, few of us ever think of repaying the debt we owe and fail even to say 'thank you'. How many of us are ungrateful to our parents and guardians, and forget that they went through much sacrifice to feed, clothe and educate us?!

Very often we are also ungrateful to God. How many times have we asked God to lift us out of a situation and then walked away without saying "Thank You Lord"?! In times of need we pray to Him with great intensity. Then, time passes and we forget God. We forget to give Him thanks for bringing us through numerous struggles and difficulties.

Let us be ever mindful of the admonition of the Psalmist: "Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits" Psalm 103:2

Prayer:

Heavenly Father, we thank You for all Your loving care and tender mercies. We thank You for guiding and directing us through the rough paths of life. Lord, help us that we may never forget those who assisted us through life, especially parents and guardians, teachers and other mentors. Amen.

"Our Lamb has conquered; Let us follow Him"

From the Pastor's Desk

Pastor David Ince
Independent Christian?

It is the month of November, and here in Barbados the focus of our collective thoughts is on the subject of independence. It was on November 30, 1966 (also the year of my birth) that we as a nation gained independence from our British Colonial masters; we are now free to make our own laws, chart our own course, to make decisions for ourselves. It is now 53 years later. Can we really say that we are “independent”? And can we ever be truly independent of each other? This brings me to the title of this reflection. Can there be such a creature as an independent Christian – a person answerable “only” to God with no requirement or responsibility to human authority? The answer, to the dismay of many, is “No” Daniel 2:21 - And He changes the times and the seasons; He removes kings and raises up kings; He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those who have understanding. It is God who raises up kings (human leaders) and places governments to rule over us; and Paul in the letter to the Romans instructs us to obey the government of the day (Romans 13:1 – “Let every person be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been instituted by God.”). This makes it very difficult to obey God if we are actively and aggressively disobeying those he has placed in leadership. The only exception I see in scripture to this arrangement is when that human authority goes against the word of God, as was seen in the Book of Daniel, where Daniel and his friends refused certain foods, did not bow down to the Golden Image or prayed to King Darius.

The second and possibly more important aspect is the fact that as believers we are a part of a greater (and yes, an imperfect) whole called the church or the body of Christ.

- For in fact the body is not one member but many. If the foot should say, “Because I am not a hand, I am not of the body,” is it therefore not of the body? And if the ear should say, “Because I am not an eye, I am not of the body,” is it therefore not of the body? <sup>17</sup> If the whole body were an eye, where would be the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where would be the smelling? But now God has set the members, each one of them, in the body just as He pleased. And if they were all one member, where would the body be? But now indeed there are many members, yet one body -

Corinthians 12:14-20.

Finally, as believers we are instructed in the Bible to dwell in unity and to have fellowship with each other. So as difficult as it sometimes can be, we are called upon to rely upon each other in love and obedience – Be subject to one another out of reverence for Christ. (Ephesians 5:21)

“What’s the verdict?” Can there be an independent Christian?

Happy Independence, Barbados!

FEATURE

Christ, the Chief Elder

After its renewal in Germany in 1722, and its Spiritual Baptism there in 1727, the Moravian Church set out on missionary activity from 1732. By 1741 it stretched from Greenland to South Africa. It became the custom to appoint one of the elders within the church to be a chief elder. Such a person had the responsibility for spiritual matters for the entire Moravian Unity and its members. The workload therefore became burdensome. For six years this chief elder had been Leonard Dober, the first Moravian missionary. (He had landed on the island of St. Thomas in the Caribbean on December 13, 1732 with David Nitschmann.)

By the time of the Synod held in London in September of that year (1741), Dober had given notice of his retirement from that office. The Synod therefore set about the appointment of a new chief elder. This they did by Lot. (See footnote for explanation of 'Lot'). But even from among such inspiring elders as Count Zinzendorf, his wife and daughter, Friederich de Watteville (Zinzendorf's best friend), Rosina Nitschmann, August Spangenberg, and David Nitschmann, an appointment could not be secured: the Lot kept saying "No". The Synod paused its agenda and took time for prayer and Biblical reflection on the matter. Since scripture seemed to point them in the direction of Jesus' role as the great shepherd, they asked themselves whether they should be considering Jesus for the office of chief elder and would He accept this. On September 16th they put this question to the Lot and the surprising answer was "Yes".

The Synod was overjoyed at this decision of Jesus Christ as Chief Elder of the Moravian Church and so decided to make a public announcement in all Moravian congregations around the world. Since the means of communication would be slow (by ship), a date was selected to make the announcement. This date was November 13, 1741. Since then this date has been celebrated in the Moravian Church to mark the Proclamation of Christ as Chief Elder.

Rev. Dr. Craig Atwood, Associate Professor of Moravian Theology and Ministry at Moravian

Theological Seminary in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, gives the following significance to this proclamation:

"By proclaiming that Jesus Christ is our Chief Elder, Moravians acknowledge that he is the true head of the church and all that we do should be pleasing to him. It is also a reminder that true leadership is a servant leadership like that of Jesus."

Today, as Moravians we proclaim Christ as Chief Elder and we advance under the banner of our motto, "Our Lamb has conquered: let us follow Him".

Footnote: (adapted from Craig Atwood):

Moravians made important decisions by selecting a lot, the purpose of which was to let God have a direct voice in decisions of the church. The elders would discuss a problem and propose a solution. Then they would pray for divine guidance, and finally they would pull out a slip of paper from a box, often a scripture verse suggesting an answer. If it said "yes," they would go ahead with the decision. If it said "no," they tried to find another solution. Sometimes the lot said "wait," and so they would give the situation a little more time and try again.

On September 16, they asked the Lord if Leonard Dober could stop being Chief Elder and the answer was "yes." They then proposed several persons for his replacement as the chief elder, but the answer by Lot was always "No". Finally the small group of elders decided ask this question: "Whether this signified that the Saviour would himself undertake the office." To their surprise, the lot agreed and in good Moravian fashion, they sang a hymn, "We kiss thee with great tenderness, you elder of the congregation." Jesus Christ had officially accepted the office of Chief Elder through the Lot.

Sunday School Orientation Workshop

Sunday School is crucial to the Body of Christ. In preparation for the resumption of our Sunday School Programme, a Sunday School Teachers' Orientation Workshop was held at Bethlehem's Cuthbert Pilgrim Memorial Hall. The Workshop took place on Saturday, September 14th for those persons willing to be Sunday School Teachers, to assist or to serve in the future. Being of service to others is one area of ministry which is critical to the body of Christ - the church. The training emphasised this aspect as a vital characteristics of the Sunday School Teacher - persons willing to serve God by serving others. Some of the areas in which persons can serve God by serving others include, serving your family; giving financially to build God's Kingdom; volunteering in your community; home visiting; teaching; donating supplies, and helping children.

Women's Fellowship Council Month

The Aim of the Barbados Moravian Women's Fellowship is to foster a spirit of sisterhood by uniting women in spiritual fellowship through prayer, education, service and outreach.

The Women's Fellowship Council once again celebrated the month of October with their usual activities. It started with the Annual General Meeting (AGM) on the 6th, followed by the Culinary, Arts and Craft Exhibition on the 13th, the Quiz on 21st. It culminated with the Candlelight Service at Mt. Tabor on Sunday the 27th at 5.00 pm. The Theme for the evenings' message was "Live By Love" where the Senior Pastor of White Park Wesleyan Holiness Church, Rev. Esther Willoughby gave us eight (8) recipes of showing true love: Patience, Kindness, Humility, to name a few.

The Fellowships throughout the Conference were responsible for the service on Sunday the 20th. Our very own Sis. Desma Linton brought the message at Bethlehem, focussing on the life of Paul – 'Contentment'. The evening featured a Variety Concert at Calvary where Sis. Claire Edwards sang a beautiful rendition of "My Redeemer Lives." In all it was a great Concert.

The Bethlehem Women's Fellowship received a trophy for first (1st) place in the Quiz, and one for second (2nd) in Culinary, and though this year we did not enter as many exhibits as we usually do, we came third (3rd) overall. Dunscombe was this year's first place winners, followed by Calvary in second place.

Again, I want to say 'Thank You' to all those who supported us in the Quiz; whether through prayers or by gracing us with their presence. Thanks go to Pastor David Ince and Bro. Cecil Forde who journey with us every year, and to Sis. Clauzel Forde who helped with the Quiz. Thanks also go to all the other Fellowship members. May God continue to be with us as we continue our work for the Lord.

Sis. Worrell's contribution this year has been missed. Though she was not well, she still encouraged us to do our craft. She will be deeply missed. May she rest in peace.

The Passing of a Loved One in the Family

The death (passing from life on this earth to the presence of our Lord and Saviour) of a loved one in the immediate family, close friend or even a colleague can be difficult to accept or to bear. It is particularly difficult to bear when one loses a parent, child or sibling. It is widely felt that the only thing that eases the feelings of loss, sorrow, loneliness, and sometimes actual pain is the nature of the relationship, TIME, and FORGIVENESS (sometimes of self, circumstance, or the deceased, where appropriate).

My family has just experienced the loss of our Centenarian (101-year old) "Aunt" Cynthia Greene to death. Our Church is also experiencing the loss to death of our former Organist, Sis. Marjorie Worrell, who will be missed by all members of our Church. Our condolences are extended to the families of both of our 'Angels'. May they Rest In Peace (RIP) and rise in glory, as they are now in the nearer presence of our Lord and Saviour (1 Corinthians 15: 21 & 22 and Psalm 23).

Both of these ladies were extremely creative women. Sis. Marjorie Worrell was a Teacher for her adult life - teaching at the primary and secondary school levels. We will miss her in many areas of our Church life, especially music, and arts and crafts. Her creative skills were shared with many a young person, as well as with the women in our Bethlehem Women's Fellowship.

'Aunt' Cynthia, a very dear, close family member, was a talented Seamstress, who designed for many a bride and their attendants, as well as being a Hairdresser. Her skills were also beneficial to her wider family. I will miss my aunt's tremendous sense of humour, lovely personality, loving kindness, and family priorities and guidance. We will miss her very much in our family. R.I.P.

Grief

Grief is really a natural and appropriate response to loss or separation – it is actually considered therapeutic. As Christians, our faith gives us hope in the knowledge that death is not the end. The occasion of separation from earth and from us, opens the door to reconciliation with God – that is not death but life! That perspective transforms what might be classified as worldly grief into Christian grief. Although this understanding is true, it does not erase the grief we experience. Be prepared. Sometimes, although time has advanced, and we feel well on the way to 'moving on', grief will come again from some corner of our mind and take us back like a wave. That is natural! Remember, God is right there with us. He has promised to never leave us nor forsake us. Hold on!

Introducing 'Unity Expressions'

The Dance Ministry at the Bethlehem Moravian Church started approximately 10 years. We have all been delighted with the ministry of these little ones ("Jewels" they were called) and have seen those who are still members, grow from tiny tots to teenagers.

Their ministry continues to delight at Harvest, concerts, Mother's Day, Christmas, and at other events both at Bethlehem, and other congregations as time and schedule permits. The dancers also undertook the role of Cheerleaders for Bethlehem at our Annual Conference Sports and Fellowship Day.

This group of children, both individually and collectively, continues to minister in dance and, on occasion, with singing. The members range in age from 8 years to 16 years. The group is now preparing for our Harvest Programme on 17th November. The group is cohesive, and has undertaken to solidify its mission, role and impact, and is now called "Unity Expressions" (UE). Two members of this group are featured in this publication.
